Testimonial for Dylan Nguyen (Kim Khai)

I am pleased to write this testimonial for Dylan Nguyen, who has been an exemplary Data Analytics Intern in the Global Supply Management function at Corning. During his tenure, Dylan's exceptional technical skills and meticulous attention to detail have significantly enhanced our operational efficiency.

Dylan's proficiency in data transformation, workflow automation, and web scraping projects has not only streamlined our processes but also played a pivotal role in achieving our shared objective with a key business unit. His innovative approaches and solutions have led to measurable improvements in our operations.

One of Dylan's most commendable qualities is his ability to work independently with minimal guidance, consistently delivering results that surpass expectations.

Furthermore, Dylan's collaboration skills are noteworthy. He has seamlessly integrated with our team, contributing to complex discussions, and demonstrating a level of professionalism and maturity that belies his status as an intern. His ability to articulate ideas clearly and work cohesively with colleagues across different countries has greatly contributed to the team.

In summary, Dylan is not just a talented and dedicated intern; he is a proactive individual who has proven to be a tremendous asset to our team. His blend of technical expertise, independent work ethic, and collaborative spirit makes him an ideal candidate for any future role. I am confident that he will continue to excel and make significant contributions in his future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Michael Cheong Yew Mun
